MAIN TOPICS

- A. Chemistry Tomorrow: Beyond the Limits of Sustainability
- B. Chemistry and Life Sciences

Authors are invited to present their contributions in the form of poster presentations in the following areas: Analytical Chemistry, Biochemistry, Biotechnology, Chemical Engineering, Computational Chemistry, Education in Chemistry, Inorganic Chemistry, Materials, Organic Chemistry, Physical Chemistry, Polymers and Structural Chemistry.

More than 20 invited lecturers, the best from the region and wider, will present their latest results. The list of invited speakers is updated on the Conference web site.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSIONS

Only abstracts submitted in electronic form and prepared according to the template which is given at <http://hemija.net/icosecs5> will be considered. The authors are asked to indicate the area they are submitting the abstract to.

The name of the file should be defined in the following way:

Last name of the first author-first two words of the title.doc

(for example: Popovski-Fluorescence_energy.doc).
